Comfort and Ergonomics at Home

Arlow Office Desk 01.

This reversible desk with minimalist lines seamlessly combines ergonomics, style, and practicality. Its base with shelves allows you to store many different things, such as your trinkets or your essentials.

Surface, base and shelves in White laminate and Olé chair in Sesame.

Arlow Office Desk with Riser 02.

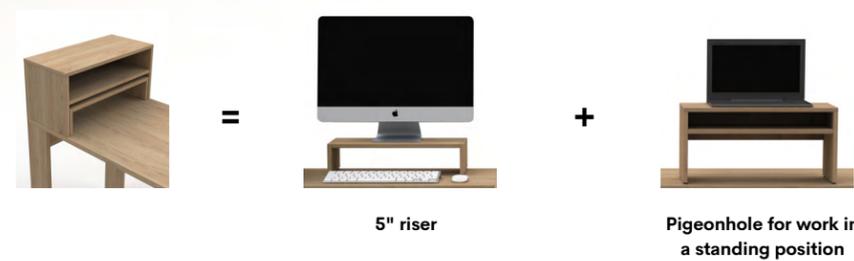

The perfect combination to vary your positions and avoid leaving everything lying around on your desk. You can equip your desk with a screen riser for a more ergonomic office desk and combine it with the multifunctional pigeonhole which will allow you to work in a standing position. An all-in-one as they say.

Surface, base and shelves in Dalia laminate, open storage on casters in Dalia and upholstered Auxil chair in charcoal.

The Two Make a Pair

Are you working from home with someone else? It is easy to add a common return to the Arlow desks to create a functional, spacious and comfortable workspace for two people.

Surface, riser and pigeonhole in Ginger Root laminate.

Wilow Office Desk 03.

This table with tapered metal legs will fit as well in a room dedicated to working from home as in a living room or in the bedroom. Add a metal compact pedestal on casters with the Noki electronic lock to secure storage or combine it with a return to increase the work surface.

Surface in Ginger Root laminate, legs in Polar White enamel, compact metal pedestal on casters in Polar White and Auxil chair in Black Mesh.

Millie Height Adjustable Desk 04.

This height adjustable desk with casters will allow you to vary your position throughout the day. Thanks to the integrated pneumatic adjustment system, the surface can reach a height of 43 1/2". The height adjustment is done manually by simply pressing on the lever with one hand and pushing the work surface up or down. Sitting or standing, your workspace ergonomics will be optimized to their full potential with Millie.

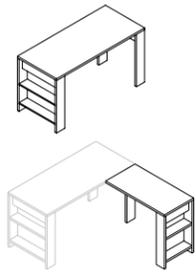

Surface and base in Ginger Root laminate, Black metal telescopic base and Auxi chair in Black Mesh.
